Yes, You Can Go Home Again!
Concordia Alumni Invited Back For Homecoming '93

MONTREAL / October 4, 1993 — Concordia University celebrates its 4th annual Homecoming this year with a wide variety of reunion activities. In attendance at many of these events will be the University's new Chancellor, Eric Molson, and Chair of Homecoming '93, Peter Howlett, BA '63, Loyola.

On Thursday, October 14th, Homecoming starts on a high note with a Gala Faculty/Student Concert in the University's beautiful Concert Hall on the Loyola Campus, which will be followed by a reception in the Atrium of the Vanier Library.

Friday evening, Rector Patrick Kenniff, BA '64, BSc '65, Loyola, will host a reunion dinner at the Saint James Club, for graduates celebrating a 25th, 30th, 35th, 40th, 45th and 50th anniversary from Loyola College and Sir George Williams. Emcee for the evening will be Tom Guay, BA'68. Also attending this reunion dinner are Arthur Campeau, BA '63, Loyola, Canadian Ambassador to the Environment and Sustainable Development, James Stanford, BSc '58 Loyola, President and CEO of Petro Canada, who will be giving the Toast to the University, and his brother, Joe Stanford, BA '53, Loyola, the Deputy Solicitor General of Canada. Toasting Absent Friends at this dinner will be Morris Zand, BComm '68 Sir George Williams and Dorothy Anderson, BA '48, Sir George Williams, will be saying grace.

Saturday morning will have an academic flair to it with the Homecoming seminar series. At 9:00 a.m. Ambassador Campeau will speak on the environmental future of Canada. At 10:00 a.m. alumni are invited to get acquainted with the intricacies of the modern library system; and at 11:00 a.m. world renowned poet Irving Layton will read from his lifetime of work.

On Saturday afternoon, it's off to the football stadium on the Loyola campus where the Concordia Stingers will defend the Homecoming Cup against the Carleton Ravens. The game kicks-off at 1:00 p.m., but the Homecoming pre-game BBQ gets fired up at 11:00 a.m.

Homecoming '93 wraps up with the Reunion Revival Big Band Dance featuring the University's own musical virtuoso, Charles Ellison and his 17 piece band. Alumni, staff, faculty and friends of Concordia will be swinging to the sounds of the big band era in the Atrium of the new J.W. McConnell Building. Attending this dance are sweethearts from days gone by: Florence and Shulom Friedman met at Sir George Williams University in 1953 and have been together ever since, as have Francine Jones and James Doyle who will be celebrating their 17th anniversary the very day of this Homecoming event.

Graduates will be descending on their old stomping grounds from as far away as Vancouver, Calgary and New York. If you'd like to be among them, contact Leisha LeCouvie or Laura Wells at 848-3815.
